The following items are needed to obtain a Residential Kitchen Permit in the Town of Wrentham. The fee is $110.

1. Application for Residential Kitchen Permit: This application must be completed in its entirety, do not leave any sections blank.
2. Workers' Compensation Insurance Affidavit. Massachusetts General Law Chapter 152 requires all businesses submit a Workers' Compensation Affidavit. The Workers' Compensation Affidavit is included in this packet.
3. Certificate of Liability: You must furnish the Certificate of Liability from your Insurance Company. The certificate must be dated within two weeks of the application and list the Town of Wrentham as a Certificate Holder.
3. Good Standing Approval: If you (owner) or the organization owns property in the Town of Wrentham, you must have this form processed by the Town Treasurer's office. Please provide a fully-executed Good Standing Approval form with your application.
4. Food Certifications: Massachusetts State Law requires the following certifications in order to obtain a permit:
 - a) All Residential Kitchens must have one person certified in food protection. Please provide current copies of this certification with your application.
 - b) All Residential Kitchens must have one certified food protection manager with an allergen awareness certificate. Please see the state website for information on how to obtain this training.
